

Personal Information Processing Guideline

The Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation Limited, Seoul (the “Bank”) has in place a procedure necessary for protecting personal information and rights of its customers and properly handling customer inquiries and complaints arising therefrom in accordance with Article 12 Paragraph 1 of Personal Information Protection Act and Article 30 of the same Act.

Article 1 (Scope)

The Status and Procedure of Processing Personal Information (“Procedure”) shall apply to operation of personal information files created in any form including but not limited to electronic file, printed materials or other paper documents.

Article 2 (Personal Information Protection)

- ① You should make the purpose of personal information processing explicit and specified and shall collect minimum personal information lawfully and fairly to the extent necessary for such purpose.
- ② You should process personal information compatibly to the extent necessary to attain the personal information processing purposes, and shall not use beyond such purposes.
- ③ You should ensure the personal information accurate, complete and up to date to the extent necessary to attain the personal information processing purpose and also ensure that the personal information is not unfairly altered or damaged due to wilful misconduct or negligence during the process.
- ④ You should manage personal information in a safe way according to the personal information processing methods, types, etc. in consideration of the possibility that the data subject rights are infringed upon and the degree of such risk by using appropriate managerial, technical and physical measures.
- ⑤ You should make public the Procedure and other personal information processing matters and should come up with reasonable procedures and methods to guarantee the data subject rights (as defined in the Personal Information Protection Act) including the right to access to his/her personal information.
- ⑥ You should process personal information in a manner to minimize the possibility to infringe on the privacy of a data subject.
- ⑦ You should endeavor to process personal information in anonymity if possible even when you lawfully collected personal information.
- ⑧ You should endeavor to obtain trust of data subjects by observing and performing such duties and responsibilities as provided in the relevant laws and regulations.

Article 3 (Collection of Personal Information)

The Bank may collect personal information and use it within the scope of the purpose of collection to the extent permitted by the relevant laws and regulations.

Article 4 (Purpose of Personal Information Processing)

The Bank processes personal information of its customers for the following purposes. The personal information processed by the Bank shall not be used for other purposes than the followings, and if the Bank intends to change the purpose of using personal information, it will obtain a prior consent from a data subject except cases where the Bank is permitted to change the purpose without consent of a data subject under the relevant laws and regulations.

1. Financial Relationship

The Bank may process personal information for the purpose of carrying out credit checks of its customers with credit reference agencies or credit collection agencies, determining whether to establish financial relationship, maintaining and managing financial relationship, investigating financial incidents, resolving disputes, handling complaints and complying with all statutory and regulatory requirements.

2. Marketing Promotions

The Bank may process personal information for the purpose of developing new products or services and providing tailored services based on customer satisfaction surveys or market research, providing services and advertisements more suitable in statistical and demographic terms, confirming validity of services, providing free gifts or promotions and gathering statistical information on customers' login frequencies or patterns of use of services.

3. Management of Membership

The Bank may process personal information for the purpose of managing and maintaining membership services, verifying identity, carrying out personal identification, preventing illegal or unauthorized access, determining customers' intent to join as members, checking whether consent of a legal agent is obtained when collecting personal information of a child under 14, verifying identify of the legal agent, investigating incidents, resolving disputes, handling complaints, sending notices for members-only services, etc.

4. Online Transaction

The Bank may process personal information for the purpose of tracking down or searching electronic financial transaction details under Article 21 and Article 22 of the Act on Electronic Financial Transactions or using the information for statistical data necessary to establish security policies, etc.

5. Employment, Human Resources Management, Information Exchange

The Bank may process personal information for the purposes of hiring bank employees, managing human resources, helping those who worked in the financial businesses to find employment, exchanging information on officers and employees between financial institutions, etc.

Article 5 (Period of Retention and Use)

- ① Personal (credit) information relating to financial transactions shall be kept and in use from the date when consent to the collection and use of the information is obtained to 5 years after the termination date of the relevant transaction for the aforementioned purposes. Following the termination date, the information is kept for the sole purpose of investigating financial incidents, resolving disputes, handling complaints, complying with all statutory and regulatory requirements and managing risk.
- ② Personal (credit) information collected for credit checks shall be kept and in use from the date when consent to the collection and use of such information is obtained to the date when consent to provision and inquiry of credit information remains effective. When the information has reached the end of its shelf-life, it is kept and used for the sole purpose of investigating financial incidents, resolving disputes, handling complaints and complying with all statutory and regulatory requirements.
- ③ Personal (credit) information relating to promotion and solicitation for products and services shall be kept and in use from the date when consent to collection and use of the information is obtained to the date when the consent is withdrawn. After the consent is withdrawn, the information is kept and used for the sole purposes of investigating financial incident, resolving disputes, handling complaints and fulfilling statutory and regulatory obligations in connection with Article 1 hereof.
- ④ Personal (credit) information collected for the purpose of providing customers with a comprehensive range of membership services shall be kept and in use from the date when the customer subscribes to the service to the date when the customer cancels the membership. After the membership is canceled, the information is kept and used for the sole purpose of investigating financial incident, resolving disputes, handling complaints and fulfilling statutory and regulatory requirements in connection with Article 1 hereof.

 - Financial transaction information: product type, terms (interest rate, maturity, security, etc.), transaction date, amount, etc.
 - Information provided on a transaction application form or directly provided by the customer (other than personally identifiable information): housing, family members, residence period, household, marriage, etc.
- ※ Personal (credit or financial transaction) information collected before customer's consent on the provision of the information is obtained is also included.

3. Retention of Personal Information

-Personal (Credit) information is kept and in use during the period from the date when it is provided to the date when the consent of provision is withdrawn or the purpose of provision is accomplished. After the consent is withdrawn or the purpose is accomplished, the information will be kept and used within the extent necessary to investigate financial incidents, resolving disputes, handling complaints and fulfilling statutory or regulatory requirements in connection with the aforementioned purposes.

③In case of outsourcing, the Bank explicitly sets forth the requirements to faithfully comply with laws and regulations relating to personal information protection, prevention of providing personal information to a third party and assumption of responsibility in the relevant agreement and keeps the contract in writing or in an electronic form. If there is any major change in the content thereof, the Bank will notify such change via its web page [<http://www.hsbc.co.kr>].

Article 8 (Customers' Rights and Obligations)

- ① Customers may request the Bank to view personal information of themselves or children under 14 (in case where the relevant customer is a legal agent of the child).
- ② Customers who have viewed their own personal information held with the Bank may request the Bank to correct or delete any information which is not accurate or verifiable and the Bank shall correct or delete as requested within ten (10) days from the date when such request is made and inform the result thereof to customers. However, customers may not request deletion of personal information in case where the relevant personal information is specified as "information required to be collected" in laws or regulations.
- ③ Customers may request the Bank to stop processing their own personal information, and the Bank shall respond to the request within ten (10) days from the date when such request is made by destroying the relevant personal information, etc. and inform the result thereof to customers. However, the Bank may reject such request by informing the relevant reason to the customer in case of falling under any of the following subparagraphs.
 1. In case where there exist special provisions in any Act or it is inevitable to comply with statutory obligations;
 2. In case where there is concern that any third person's life or body may be harmed, or any third person's property and other interest may be unduly infringed on; or
 3. In case where it is impractical to perform a contract, such as a failure to provide a subject of information with stipulated services unless the personal information manager processes personal information, and the subject of information fails to clearly express his/her intention to terminate the contract.
